

HE # MADE

IT!

CAIRNS one-armed climber Paul Hockey has earned a place in history by conquering the world's highest mountain. He has endured snowstorms, blasting winds and weeks of delays but has finally realised his dream — becoming the first disabled person to climb Mt Everest from the treacherous north side. News of his historic feat was confirmed yesterday as Paul recovered at Advanced Base Camp and prepared to trek 22km down to Base Camp today. >>> Report Page 3

THAT'S TOPS - TXT PAUL 0428 987 678

